Introducing the New Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Computers

George J. Sun

As my three-year term as the founding editor of the Journal of Computers (JCP, ISSN 1796-203X) ends in September 2008, it gives me great pleasure to introduce Prof. Prabhat Mahanti as the next Editor-in-Chief of JCP.

Prof. Mahanti is a Professor in Computer Science at the University of New Brunswick, Saint John, Canada. He has extensive publications and editorial experience in the field of computer science. He serves on the editorial boards of a number of international scientific journals. He has served on the organizing committees of numerous international conferences in his field. Prof. Mahanti photograph and biography follow.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all JCP Editors, authors, readers, and reviewers for their great help and support over the past three years. I look forward to a bright future for JCP under the leadership of Prof. Mahanti.

George J. Sun
Outgoing Founding Editor

Prof. Prabhat Mahanti Announced as New Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Computers

Prabhat Mahanti is a Professor in Computer Science at the University of New Brunswick, Saint John, Canada. He received Ph.D. (Indian Institute of Technology, Bombay, India), 1976, M.Sc. (Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur, India), 1971 B.Sc. (Calcutta University, India), 1968.

Prof. Mahanti’s research interests include: software engineering, software metrics, reliability modeling, modeling and simulation, numerical algorithms, finite elements, mobile and soft computing, and verification of embedded software, neural computing, data mining, and multi-agent systems. He has authored over 60 technical research papers and authors of 12 books including chapters. He has been the supervisor and thesis committee member of many Ph.D. and M.S. graduate students.

Prior to joining Canada Prof. Mahanti was the Professor and Chair of Computer Science and Engineering Department at the Birla Institute of Technology, India and participated as expert members at the Ministry of Human Resource Development and University Grant Commission, India.